

THE WARMTH OF HOME

3 Estate Lots left!

Maureen & Curt Sheldon in their Toeppen home in Villa Hills, KY

When Dr. Curt and Maureen Sheldon were ready to leave their 17 acre horse farm in Richwood, Kentucky for a shorter commute to Cincinnati, it took a special custom home to make the move easier. After a long search, they discovered Toeppen Builders could meet their desires on a picturesque lot in Country Squire Estates.

"We wanted the space, privacy, and warmth our old home had," says Maureen, "I knew John Toeppen had a good reputation, but I was really pleased that he came out to our log home to see exactly what I was looking for. John is very professional, accessible, and excellent in helping you visualize your choices on a larger scale. His field and office staff are also very dedicated and know what they're doing, it's easy to see how they achieve that famous Toeppen quality."

You can't beat the warmth of a home you love, especially one built by John Toeppen in prestigious Villa Hills, Kentucky.
