Robin Wilcox, Owner of Lazer Kraze

Can you benefit from a location with a large market of families looking for fun?

Robin Wilcox of Lazer Kraze has! The proximity of Western Row Center to the Kings Island Amusement Park and the growing northeastern suburbs of Cincinnati makes it an ideal region for any company interested in growth. The immediate access to I-71 doesn't hurt either! But the biggest benefit of being at Western Row Center for Robin was Toebben's flexibility. A three story effect for her arena was achieved only by going down three feet and Toebben made it happen. Space is now available for lease in this highly desirable center and it can be customized for your particular business. Call Toebben today for more information!
