

Good for Business

LaRosa's Franchise Owner Tarik Daoud, Crestville Center

Restaurateur Tarik Daoud knows that being in a Toebben building is good for business. Almost 25 years ago the LaRosa's franchise owner opened his first LaRosa's in Kentucky. The location was Toebben Company's Crestville Center in Crescent Springs. Eleven stores later the mid-size site off Buttermilk Pike is still one of the most successful LaRosa's. Why?

"Exposure to I-75 is a great advantage", says Tarik, "and this area continues to develop. Plus Toebben makes it easy to lease from them. They correct any issues that come up and help us expand the restaurant as our business grows".
