VALUE

Chris Schilling of Terryberry enjoys the view from his office at Toebben Companies' Fifth Street Center in Covington, KY.

Chris Schilling, Regional Manager for the Terryberry Company, works in the "recognition" industry. Terryberry's business is helping companies award outstanding employees with high quality jewelry and merchandise. But Chris also recognizes value when it comes to office space. Terryberry recently moved the regional office from Cincinnati, Ohio to Covington, Kentucky. The short trip across the bridge to Toebben Companies' Fifth Street Center was an attractive alternative to the high rent they had been paying. Plus there were other advantages.

"Traffic really isn't an issue like we thought it would be," says Chris. "The Toebben building provides quick access to the interstate, there are a lot more restaurants here, we have free parking, and the view is great!"

Chris also found the Toebben staff and crew easy to work with as they tailored the new space to meet Terryberry's needs. If you'd like to see the same kind of value in your office building, contact Toebben for your commercial, retail, or industrial projects.
