

THE BEAUTY OF HOMES

"I couldn't be happier," says Mark MacDonald when describing his Toeppen-built home in Villa Hills, Kentucky. The construction of the 4000+ square foot landominium for Mark and his wife Dee was personally supervised by John Toeppen from day one.

"John's a great guy, easy to get along with and easy to get a hold of", says Mark. "Together we came up with a number of good ideas that made our home even better. It was definitely refreshing to deal directly with the person who has the ultimate authority."

"We saw one of John's homes at the 2005 Cavalcade Show and we just kept coming back," continues Mark.

"The quality of his wood and stain work is impressive. In reality, John's only competition is the resale of homes that he's already built!"

You can't beat the beauty of a home you love, especially one built by John Toeppen. See his newest Luxury Landominium in the 2007 Cavalcade of Homes during the first three weekends in May (open noon - 5 PM, free admittance). Or contact John today for available estate and landominium lots at (859) 512-2426.

