

Easy Street

Mark Franks, Executive Vice President of the Greater Cincinnati & NKY Apartment Association, outside of his Fifth Street Center office in Covington.

Easy to get to. Easy to park. Easy to network.

That's how Mark Franks describes his office at Toebben Company's Fifth Street Center in Covington. Mark is the Executive Vice President of the Greater Cincinnati & Northern Kentucky Apartment Association. This organization is a national leader in the Multi-Family Housing Industry, representing over 500 area apartment communities with more than 440 member companies. From tracking proposed legislation that affects the apartment community to training and communicating with group members, Mark's job is challenging to say the least. Being at Fifth Street Center though makes it a little easier.

"Our members come from all over the tri-state for our meetings", says Mark. "Fifth Street Center is close to downtown and the popular MainStrasse restaurants. Plus there's free, on-site parking. We did look at other locations but you just can't beat the convenience here."

And what is Toebben like as a landlord? "Easy to work with, of course!" says Mark. "In fact we are renewing our lease."
